

5,521 Days
Of Shelter In Transitional Housing

44
Neighbors
Served

Newborn
To 68 Years Old

6 Heads Of Household Procured
Employment

2,738 Days
Of Shelter At Easton's Promise

3
Single Individuals

5 People
Received
Temporary Shelter

3 Families moved
From Easton's Promise
To Transitional Housing

57,993 Days
Of Shelter Since
December 2014

18 Families
With 25 Children

10 Graduates
From The
"Getting Ahead" Program

1 Individual
Graduated From The S4 Program

**Due to a combination of the temporary moratorium on evictions and concern about entering new group living environments, there were periods of time when fewer people were seeking shelter this year. As a result, we sheltered fewer people than in years past. Many who stayed with us remained in the shelter longer, as the pandemic also created greater barriers to moving towards self-sufficiency.****